A Perfect Laxative

should be mild, prompt, and pleasant, with no griping or purgative effects. It should also irritate the liver to action, aid digestion, and relieve the bowels. Like nothing else. Paine's Celery Compound is a perfect laxative, and cures constipation where all other remedies fail.

"As a gentle laxative, Paine's Celery Compound is surely without a peer. I think I ought to know, since I have tried remedy after remedy for about five or six years, and have found nothing that equals it in my case of constipation."

J. H. JENKINS, Teacher, Clifton's Creek, Tenn.

"Paine's Celery Compound is prompt and pleasant. As a laxative it leaves little to be desired. I have great confidence in its merits."

ALBERT LEONARD, Associate Editor,
Journal of Pedagogy, Athens, Ohio.

"For two or three years I suffered intensely every night with severe pains in my bowels, which were habitually constipated. My bowels are now regular, and I have had no return of those pains since using one bottle of Paine's Celery Compound."

F. G. BUCKLEY, Druggist, Havana, Ala.

OLD JOE'S STOMACH.

It Didn't Object to Aqua Fortis Although It Ate a Little Quicker.
In the pretty village of Hadonshire, N. J., says the New York Sunday Mercury, there used to reside an old fellow who was familiarly known in the town and country round as "Old Joe." He had no particular occupation except doing chores or errands, nor any particular location. He ate where he could get a bite and slept wherever he could find a lodging place. Joe was a regular old toper, and Jersey lightning had no more effect on his inside than just so much water. He generally made his headquarters at the lower tavern, for there were two in the town. He would sleep and do away the afternoon on an old bench in one corner of the bar-room, but was always awake when there was any drinking going on. When he was not asked to drink he would slip to the bar and drain the glasses of the few drops left in them.

One afternoon Dr. Bohns, the village physician, was in the tavern mixing up a preparation. He placed a tumbler half full of aqua fortis on the bar, and turned round to mix some other ingredients. A few moments after he had occasion to use the poisonous drug when he found to his dismay that the tumbler had been drained to the last drop.

"Mr. Wiggins," exclaimed the doctor in affront to the landlord, "what has become of the aqua fortis I put on the bar a few moments ago?"

"I don't know," replied the landlord, "unless old Joe slipped in and drank it."

In this suspicion they were soon confirmed, for the hostler said he had seen old Joe swallow the fatal draught. The doctor knowing that he must die after such a dose, instituted a search at once. After some hours spent in looking through the barn, out-houses, woods, etc., for three or four miles round the village, Joe was abandoned to his fate. It was a cold night, and as the village toppers assembled around the blazing hickory fire in the bar-room nothing was thought of or talked of but the unfortunate fate of poor old Joe.

Some four or five days elapsed, and nothing having been heard from old Joe, they all came to the conclusion that he was a goner. The doctor, about this time, was called upon to visit a patient some eight miles distant. What was his surprise on seeing old Joe in front of a farmer's house splitting wood!

"Why, Joe," said the doctor, riding up to the fence, "I thought you were dead and buried before this!"

"What made you think that, doctor?" said Joe, leaning on his axe handle.

"Didn't you drink that dose I left on old Wiggins' bar a few days since?"

"Why—yes," replied Joe, half ashamed to own up to it.

"Do you know what it was?" continued the doctor.

"No," returned Joe.

"Well, it was aqua fortis—enough to kill a dozen men!"

"Well, doctor, do you know I thought there was something queer about that damned stuff, for after I drank it, every time I blowed my nose I burnt a hole in my pocket handkerchief!"

PAWN-SHOP TALES.

Pathetic Stories Told by Unredeemed Jewels and Silverware.
"The pawn-shop is the place to study human nature," remarked a gentleman to a Louisville Courier-Journal reporter yesterday. "There you can see how life in all its phases and by listening to the stories related by the customers, you can get some idea of the great struggle for existence which some people are going through with."

With these remarks as a preface, the gentleman pointed into the window of a Madison street pawn-shop, where "For Sale" was displayed over a solid silver water set of rich and unique design which occupied the place of prominence in the window. The set is composed of a sterling silver water pitcher, chased with gold, a square and heavy tray and two handsome ornamented flagons, each one a foot in height. The set is probably very valuable, but what attracts attention is the inscription on the pitcher. The location of that silver set in the pawn-broker's window must tell its own tale of suffering or want. What privations were endured and what pains it cost the owner to dispose of it will never be known, but the fact remains that it is there and marked "For Sale," which is good evidence that the owner of the silver is unable to redeem the property. The engraving on the face of the pitcher is as follows: "Presented to— by the officers of the— Bank, January 1, 1882."

In the window of another pawn-shop on Jefferson street another story is equally as well told. But this time it is a narrative of dissipation and carousal rather than one of need or privation. In the center of an attractive grouping of jewelry are displayed two handsome and costly gold medals over which is also hung the sign for sale. These are also valuable and costly and the gold and diamonds and the words of praise inscribed upon them, once caused feelings of pride and ambition to animate poor Thomas Ramsey. These medals were bought and presented to him by admirers when he first came here, green and unsophisticated, a steady boy who had made wonderful strides forward in his profession, that of a baseball player. These medals, once his pride and his joy, tell a story vastly different from the widow's silver shown from another pawn-broker's window not many squares away.

A Chestnut from Germany.
The President of the United States gave a feast. Among the guests, as frequently happens, were certain Indian chiefs, says Fliegende Blaetter. A young chief noticed that one of the white brothers helped himself to mustard. The Indian also helped himself over-pleetifully and transferred the entire portion to his mouth. Notwithstanding the blistering quality of the mustard the stoical son of the wilderness without moving a muscle of his face swallowed the dose. He was, however, unable to keep the mustard from trickling down his cheeks. An old Indian, noticing his dolorous plight, asked why he wept. "I weep," said the young warrior, "because my poor father in the waters of Lake Huron before one year drowned was." The old chief made no comment, and in turn helped himself no less liberally to the mustard than his young companion had done. Having swallowed his portion he also began to weep silently. "Old father, why weepest thou, then?" asked him now, with knowing look, the young chief. "I weep," said the older, "because thou art before one year with thy father together in Lake Huron drowned was."

"Dear me," ejaculated Mrs. Tomlinson, after hearing her daughter execute a brilliant aria several sizes too big for her, "hain't Almira got a magnificent timbre to her tone?" "Timber!" snarled the crusty old uncle who had always desired his niece to learn cooking. "Timber! lots of it! Why, life's the most woody voice I have ever heard!"

THE GAZETTE AND STOCKMAN

That $100,000 Appropriation.

The Carson Appeal says:
The Reno Gazette is up in arms against the $100,000 appropriation for water storage. It thinks the money ought not to have been taken from the School fund.

At the special election held last winter, the people decided by their votes that they no longer cared to see tied up in the School fund, money that might be of service in developing the industries of the State. A beginning had to be made somewhere, and it was decided the Carson river was a good point to begin. We believe that the experiment will prove of such benefit to the State that this appropriation will only be a beginning to what will follow.

"A beginning had to be made somewhere," says the Appeal, "and it was decided that the Carson river was a good point to begin." We would ask who decided that important question? Certainly not the bill itself; so it is fair to presume that the millmen on the Carson river decided it, and that is just what the GAZETTE objects to. The spending of $100,000 by a Board, the majority of whom are clearly in the interest of the mills, is too much money to intrust to such a Board. The GAZETTE believes that it was the understanding that the Board should investigate the matter closely and spend the money where it would do the most good to the greatest number, but after they had lobbied it through and named the commission with one exception, namely, Clark of Humboldt, that they wanted and took the chances of Blakeslee effecting his (Clark's) resignation and getting himself appointed, a scheme which subsequent events proved to be correct, the mask was pulled off and the true intent of its managers became known.

Now, we would like to ask the GAZETTE if it begrudges a little prosperity and plenty to other sections of the country outside of Washoe?

No, we do not. But when Washoe pays more than a quarter of the whole State tax, we have a right to see to it that $100,000 is not invested, not in the interest of the farmers, not to reclaim the arid lands of the State, but in the interest of rich corporations under the disguise of helping the farmers.

The idea of attacking the motives of the Board of Commissioners before any move has been made is ridiculous, says the Appeal.

We contend that it is just the time to attack "the motives of the Board," for it is so patent on the face of it that Williams and Blakeslee, and Springmeyer, too, for that matter, propose to do just what their employers ask them to, that we deem it clearly our privilege to thoroughly ventilate the question.

We all appreciate the value of the mining industry, and all of us understand the relations existing between the mills and the mines. We all understand that the mills have been run, not in the interest of the mining shareholders, but to gull the mine-owners and public, and why the cattle man, the sheep man and the farmer, who are struggling for an existence, should be asked to put up $100,000 to further enrich these Shylocks is not clear.

To show that the resignation of Clark was effected by not altogether legitimate means we here append a letter received from him:
MILL CITY, March 12, 1889.
J. N. BROWN—Dear Sir: Yours of the 10th just received. I have also just received a letter from C. A. La Grange. I will go to Winnemucca tomorrow night and see La Grange, and if not too late, I will withdraw my resignation. Respectfully yours,
J. P. CLARK.

Subsequently Mr. Clark telegraphed to the Governor, withdrawing his resignation, but Blakeslee had already been appointed, so the job was complete.

JUDGE WELLS' appointment as Judge of the Fourth Judicial District creates a vacancy in the Board of Regents. The GAZETTE takes the liberty of nominating R. L. Fulton to fill the vacancy. Mr. Fulton is a painstaking, careful man, and one who would make a first-class Regent in every particular. We do not know that he would accept it if tendered him, but if he would it would be a most excellent appointment.

Our dispatches are somewhat meagre to-day owing to the wires being down both east and west of us.

It is not strange to read that England and the Dominion have decided to subsidize the new lines of ships to run between Liverpool and the eastern terminus of the Canadian Pacific and the western terminus and Japan and China. That is England's way. The subsidy was agreed upon before the keels of the ships were laid a year ago. Her subsidized ships penetrate every important port of the world, and yet we have a mighty class of politicians in this country that think it is strange that we have no ships on the sea, and at the same time that the paying of subsidies to steam lines is a robbery of just so much from the people. The treatment of our shipping interests and of the silver question by our so-called statesmen is an indication that we rate in statesmanship about on a par with the Governments of Turkey and Persia.

THE New York Sun praises President Harrison's custom of taking a brisk walk every day as a corrector of the tendency of middle-aged men to corpulence and as the best method of clearing the brain. It laments Cleveland's failure in pedestrianism and speaks of his tolling at his desk, "accumulating adipose tissue, not wisdom." We fear that no amount of exercise would have saved Cleveland. The Moses of the Mugwumps, says the San Francisco Chronicle, was cursed with conceit, which warped his vision and clouded his judgment. Even failure did not suffice to show him his errors, and if he ever emerges from his present retirement we may expect to see him appealing again to the lovers of free trade and the epicurean Mugwumps.

ADMIRAL PORTER says that with $50,000,000 at his command he could, in sixty days, put an improvised fleet in motion which would make short work of German commerce. In default of a navy this would be permissible, but it smacks too much of the methods of the Alabama and Florida to be generally acceptable to the American people.

THE United States May Be Sued. SAN FRANCISCO, March 14.—United States Circuit Judge Sawyer to-day made an important decision. By the decision the demurrer of the United States in the case of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company vs. the United States is overruled and the proposition laid down that the United States can be sued by a subject. The Southern Pacific Company brought suit against the Government in the Circuit Court under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1887, entitled "An Act to provide for bringing suits against the Government of the United States," for the settling of its claim to tracts of land against the United States, and asking that its title to the lands be established in the petition by decree of Court. The lands are odd-numbered sections lying in the limits of lands granted by the United States to the company in the Act approved July, 1860. The company sued for patents which the Land Office refused to grant.

French Securities. PARIS, March 15.—2 P. M.—The Bourse is very flat; Comptoir Descompte 320 francs, Societe des Metaux, 90.

Langtry All Right. NEW YORK, March 15.—Mrs. Langtry is not seriously ill this morning, but will be unable to appear before Monday.

A Nice Find. A Gilroy, Cal., dispatch of the 11th inst. says: Last Friday, while plowing at the Shepherd ranch near here, Frank Dewitt turned up thirty Mexican dollars. About one year since, at almost the same spot, a lot of money was found in the same way. On Saturday two men, Letaboya and Gorry, spaded the place of finding and their spades struck an old rusted can, breaking it and scattering gold dust and nuggets. The lucky find amounted to five and one-half pounds of gold, valued at over $1,200.

When a person tells you they never had such a cold in their life take their word for it and advise them to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and cure it. For coughs, colds and hoarseness it has no equal. Sold by Osburn & Shoemaker.

Rich food and lack of exercise, during the winter months, causes the system to become torpid and the blood impure. A dose of two of St. Patrick's Pills will cleanse and invigorate the system, purify the blood and do more good than a dollar bottle of blood purifier. Sold by Osburn & Shoemaker.

An Unnatural Chicago Brute Wanted for Murder.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.]

Buried Alive.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., March 15.—There is very little hope of rescuing alive the six entombed miners at the Black diamond colliery. The scene of the accident is in a slope one thousand feet below the surface. Hopes are entertained of reaching two of them to-day. The fall of coal, bringing down with it thousands of tons, occurred at three o'clock this morning. It is believed the men were then killed or will be killed by the coal constantly falling, or suffocated for lack of air. It is estimated that it will take several days to drive a passage way to the men, and their exact fate cannot be determined at the present writing.

MOUNT CARMEL, Pa., March 15.—Five or six miners at the Black Diamond Colliery have been rescued alive and will soon be brought to the surface.

Suicide at Sutro.

SUTRO March 14.—Charles Brown, a native of Pennsylvania, aged 53 years, committed suicide this evening at 8:15 by shooting himself in the head with a 32-caliber revolver. The ball entered over the right ear, passing through the head and coming out under the left ear, causing death one hour after the shooting. He has been in the employ of the Sutro Tunnel Company for a number of years. He formerly worked in the Gold Hill mines and was a member of the Gold Hill Miners' Union. He has been unwell for some time and it is supposed killed himself in a fit of despondency. He was a man very well liked, and every one is shocked at his violent death. During the late war he was a sailor in the U. S. navy, and was seriously wounded.

A Brute Wanted.

CHICAGO, March 15.—John Jones, a grocery clerk and widower with seven children, is wanted by the police on a charge of murder. He neglected his family and kept them in the most abject, squalid poverty. The humane society investigated Jones, and a seven-year-old daughter confessed that her father had been unreasonably intimate with her for a year, and that Henry Bittings, a young married man, also mistreated her. Jones and Bittings were arrested last Wednesday. Jones gave bail for a hearing to-morrow. Yesterday the girl was found suffering with symptoms of arsenical poisoning and died at the hospital this morning. Jones has disappeared.

Whole Crew Lost.

NORFOLK, March 15.—Captain Benjamin Knight, Mate James Richards, Peter Florida, John Smith, Edward Forbes and Charles Hobbs, sailors of the brig Agnes Barton, wrecked near Virginia Beach yesterday afternoon, were drowned last night. During the night three of the men were washed overboard and lost, and when day broke the life-saving crew saw the three remaining men lashed to the rigging. At 9 o'clock the vessel burst, the mast fell and the men were drowned.

A Resignation Rumor.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Senator Chase of Rhode Island declines to either affirm or deny the published rumor that he is about to resign. It is said his intention to do so was announced by the Senate caucus yesterday. Business reasons are given as the cause.

Naval Orders.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Orders have been given to prepare the Adams at Mare Island for a year's cruise. Orders have been given to the commander of the yard to notify all suspended pension employees to consider themselves discharged.

Three Men Hanged.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., March 15.—William Green, Anderson Mitchell and Daniel Jones, all colored, were hanged at Arkadelphia, Ark., to-day for the murder of a negro preacher named Arthur Horton, May 21st, 1888. The execution was private.

Temperature Report.

CHICAGO, March 15.—The temperature this morning at New York was 36°; Chicago, 44°; St. Paul, 30°; Winnipeg, 6° below, and New Orleans, 54°.

A Heavy Loss.

BUTTE, Montana, March 15.—One of the smelters of the Anaconda Mining Company, at Anaconda, burst yesterday. Loss, $1,000,000; no insurance.

Crossed the Border.

NECHE, Dakota, March 15.—Gabriel Dumont, Louis Riel's lieutenant, this morning crossed the border on his way to Winnipeg.

A Regular Dividend.

NEW YORK, March 15.—The Oregon Navigation Directors have declared a regular quarterly dividend of 1½ per cent.

Further Particulars of the Austin Butchery.

AUSTIN, Nev., March 15.—A terrible tragedy occurred at Italian Canyon, twelve miles from here, day before yesterday afternoon between 2 and 3 o'clock. Samuel Rundle killed his father-in-law, George Hosking, and brother-in-law, aged 15, by shooting them with a shotgun, the charge of shot entering at the left side of the neck of the former and tearing away the face of the latter.

A boy named Johnny King, hearing the shot, came toward the house, and was met by Rundle holding out the gun and asking the boy to shoot him. The boy refused, telling him to come to the house and get his dinner. Rundle then took the boy's horse and rode three miles to the lower ranch, entered the kitchen of the house, and with a pistol shot Mrs. Hosking below the temple, and then shot himself in the right temple. Mrs. Hosking was ironing at the time.

The four bodies were found at the two ranches lying at right angles, forming a cross. The tragedy resulted over a quarrel about a division of property and family troubles. Mrs. Rundle was in Austin at the time of the shooting, and is distracted at the news, having two children, the eldest eighteen months old.

Johnny King followed Rundle on a horse to the lower ranch and found the bodies in the kitchen. He immediately rode into town and told of the tragedy. The coroner, sheriff and district attorney went out and brought the bodies into town about 11 o'clock last night.

The inquest was held to-day. The news spread like wildfire over the county. The whole town was shocked, as there never before occurred such a wholesale shooting in the history of the county.

Asked to Explain.

LONDON, March 15.—In the Commons this afternoon, Home Secretary Mathews was questioned with regard to the action of Anderson, an official of the Home office, who permitted Le Caron, the informer, to look over the whole of the latter's past correspondence with the Home office prior to his appearing as a witness before the Parnell Commission, and select such letters as he thought would be of service to the Times.

Mathews said at the time, he knew nothing about the course taken by Anderson, consequently he had not given it his sanction, but he now considered that Anderson acted properly. Sir William Vernon Harcourt gave notice that he would submit a motion regarding Anderson's conduct when the police vote shall be discussed on Monday.

The Sugar Market.

NEW YORK, March 15.—The output of refined sugar has latterly been taken up freely since the consumers have looked for higher prices on account of a steady upward movement, based upon the statistical position of a short crop in the West Indies and the fact that England competes sharply with American producing points for supplies. The refiners have carried along old prices until yesterday, when the old list was suspended, to be rearranged at a meeting of the trust to be held to-day. The revised prices put out this morning show an advance of one-eighth, all around, with brisk quotations are: For cut-and-crushed, $8 12½; powdered, $7 37½; granulated, $7 12½; moulded, $7 12½; cubes, $7 25; candy, $7; confectioners', $6 87½.

A Warm Contest.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—The fight against Meredith for Public Printer is very hot, because of his prominence as a leading candidate for the place. The California delegation is especially active in behalf of their man, Osborn, and hopeful of success. They do not, however, claim to have received any assurances from the President. So sharp is the fight that nearly all the dark horse candidates have been eliminated. The indications now are that out of the following six the winner will be chosen: August Donath, of Chester, Pa.; Captain Wm. Meredith, of Chicago; Captain Holloway, of Indianapolis; ex-Congressman Nichols, of North Carolina; Major A. S. Davis, of Minneapolis; and Osborn of Los Angeles, Cal.

The President's Callers.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—No perceptible diminution in the number of the President's visitors to-day. The rush continued till 12:30 o'clock, when the Cabinet assembled for its regular semi-weekly meeting. The President received one delegation from Georgia, headed by General Longstreet, and another from Virginia, headed by John S. Wise. General Goff of West Virginia had a brief talk with the President.

With Oppose Boulanger.

PARIS, March 15.—Herr Antoni, who was designed for a seat as a deputy for Metz in the Reichstag, intends to become a French citizen and offers himself as a candidate for the Chamber of Deputies in opposition to Boulanger at the next election.

Baseball Game.

BOSTON, March 15.—The baseball game between the Chicago and All-American teams resulted in favor of the Chicago—10 to 3.

Progress.

It is very important in this age of vast material progress that a remedy be pleasing to the taste and to the eye, easily taken, acceptable to the stomach and healthy in its nature and effects. Possessing these qualities, Syrup of Figs is the one perfect laxative and most gentle diuretic known.

Not a California Bear.

Anybody can catch a cold this kind of weather. The trouble is to let go, like the man who cough the bear. We advise our readers to purchase of Osburn & Shoemaker a bottle of Santa Abie, the California King of Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs and Croup Cures, and keep it handy. 'Tis pleasing to the taste and death to the above complaints. Sold at $1.00 a bottle or three for $2.50. California Cat-R-Cure gives immediate relief. The Catarrhal virus is soon displaced by its healing and penetrating nature. Give it a trial. Six months treatment $1.00, sent by mail $1.10.

Is Consumption Incurable?

Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abscess of Lung, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, am now on my third bottle, and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made." Jesse Middleton, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of lung troubles; was given up by doctors; am now in best of health." Try it. Sample bottles free at Hodgkinson's drug store.

CATTLE NOTES.

Beef on the Meadows and at Lovelock's.

Of the 9,000 head of cattle put up here early in the Fall to be fattened for the San Francisco market only about 2,500 remain unsold. Of these G. W. Mapes has 850, Sparks & Tinnin 300, E. Crane 200, John Slavan 100, Joe Frey 150, James Wall 200, G. C. Hunt 235, Mr. Long 60, Louis Dean 70, Jim Jones and George Humphreys 300, John Theodore 60, and about 300 in smaller lots scattered through the valley—enough to feed San Francisco about eighty days.

G. W. Mapes is negotiating a sale for a part of his with John Slavan now. It is getting so late in the season that not much improvement in the market can be anticipated. There are only about 1,200 or 1,400 of the 3,500 put up at Lovelock's left for the market, and they are finding their way to the shambles very fast. The ruling price is 5 1/2 cents for prime cattle.

The Unobserved Workers.

The Eira mine in which a large body of ore has been discovered by Geo. A. Smith and Hugh M. Kerr, the owners of the property, the outside world knows nothing. We hear much of what is being done by the large companies, much of their mines, costly plants, enormous output of bullion, their profits and losses, their successes and failures, because these being conspicuous matters, arrest the attention of all. Scarcely anything about the Eira mine finds its way into the papers about the Tuscarora mining district. The Eira mine has shipped one hundred and twenty-seven tons of high grade ore, producing forty thousand dollars and leaving in sight in the mine about one hundred and thirty thousand dollars. Large stacks of gold and silver weighing from ten to fifteen pounds are on exhibition at the Depot Hotel, Reno. The Eira mine is for sale.

Cheap Carriages.

W. J. Luke has got in a lot of fine carriages from the United States Carriage Company of Columbus, O. He has open and top buggies, phaetons, and open and top two-seated carriages, running all the way from $115 to $325 in price, and all work and material guaranteed to be of the finest quality. It will pay to go and see his fine stock whether you want to buy or not, and if you want a carriage or buggy it will surely pay you to make an examination. They are the cheapest lot of wagons that have ever come to this market.

San Francisco Meat Market.

Following are the rates for whole carcasses from slaughterers to dealers in San Francisco:

Beef—First quality, 6@6 1/2c; second quality, 5 1/2@6c; third quality, 5c per pound.

Veal—Quotable at 6@7c for large and 6@8c per pound for small.

Mutton—Quotable at 6 1/2@7c per pound for Wethers; Ewes, 6@6 1/2c; yearlings, 7c.

Lamb—Spring, 10@12 1/2c per pound.

Pork—Live Hogs, on foot, grain fed, 6 1/2@7c; soft, 6@6 1/2c; dressed, 5 1/2@10c per pound.

Senator Stewart and Silver.

Says the Washington (D. C.) Star of the 7th inst.: Senator Stewart says he intends to test the sense of the Senate on his silver resolution at the first opportunity. He appreciates the fact that no legislation can be enacted during a special session, but his resolution is in the nature of an instruction or a suggestion to the Secretary of the Treasury. Under the law he has the discretion to act on the suggestion without any other legislation on the subject.

Unsuspectible Constockers.

A Virginia correspondent writes to the Appeal charging that a certain woman of Carson blackmailed several married men of Virginia during the session, and wants her shown up. The Appeal fears that it can do nothing in the matter. The only way is to introduce a bill protecting innocent Constockers with families from the wiles of the gay deceivers of the Capital.

Saving Banks Deposits.

The deposits in the Philadelphia Savings Fund amounted to the enormous sum of $30,000,000 on January 1st of this year. Nearly all of the deposits are made by poor men. The deposits in the San Francisco savings banks at the same time amounted to nearly $70,000,000, much of which was the accumulation of well-to-do if not rich men and women.

Electric Lights.

An electric light plant is to be put up at Town Talk, Nevada county, Cal., which will also furnish light for Grass Valley. In addition it is proposed to erect lights along the highway between the two towns, so as to make the drive a pleasant one even in the darkest nights. Mines and mills in the locality will also be furnished with light and motive power.

A Good Position.

Captain A. Moger, formerly of Reno and late manager for the Newcastle Fruit Company, has removed to Vacaville, Cal., where he assumes a similar position for one of the largest fruit-shipping associations in Vacaville. The Captain's Nevada friends will be glad to hear of his good fortune.

"King John."

A company of talented amateurs are rehearsing Shakespeare's "King John," and if all goes well it will be produced for the benefit of the Episcopal Church Guild after Lent. The company strikes high, but the Gazette believes they will master it.

Hogs for the People.

Jack Fraser is having 17,000 pounds of hogs shipped to him here from Stockton by Louis Dean, so if any of the neighboring butchers in Carson or Virginia want hogs they can be accommodated by sending to Fraser.

Murder for Jackson.

Patsy Cardiff, the brute, accompanied by his trainer, passed west last evening on the way to San Francisco, where he goes to fight Jackson, the Australian colored pugilist.

BREVITIES.

Local and General Intelligence.

Russell & Bradley of Elko will shortly start a drive of 6,000 cattle to Idaho.

Attention is called to a lot of jewelry and money stolen, advertised by W. H. Joy.

It is reported that David Role is soon to retire from the Silver State Flouring Mill Company.

Quite a large party of distinguished Japanese men and women passed east this morning.

L. Brooks shipped six cars of beef cattle this morning to Hayes, Carrick & Co., Oakland.

United States Marshall James Moore returned last evening from the eastern part of the State.

A large force is still employed in the State Printing Office on the statutes and journals of the last session.

The recent rain in California was general and heavy. All trains on the Oregon road were blocked by a wash-out near Delta.

The Governor has appointed April 12 as Arbor Day; now let the citizens get their trees ready for the Agricultural grounds.

The dog poisoner is around. Last night Jim Conroy's beautiful setter was poisoned, besides a couple of others of less value.

R. L. Fulton was circulating a petition this afternoon praying the Governor to appoint S. D. King as Regent, vice Thomas Wells, resigned.

It is understood that Judge Thomas Wells is to receive the appointment of Judge of the Fourth Judicial District, created by the last Legislature.

The Japanese ladies who passed East this morning were very neatly attired in elegant costumes of American fashion, and, on the whole, appeared rather comely.

During the past Winter extensive improvements and repairs have been made on the Essex mill, and the proprietors, Hamlin & Doane, expect to be ready to commence sawing in the early Spring.

Marvin Cravens, a Los Angeles bookkeeper, is to spend $300 per month on a salary of $75, is supposed to have gone to the new gold mines, having gone through with $3,000 of his employer's money.

Justice Young this morning sent Mike Higgins over the river for ten days for being drunk and disorderly. Michael is anything but a desirable citizen, and the most sensible thing for him to do at the expiration of his sentence is to skip the town.

A NATURAL RESERVOIR.

A Proposition to Dam Lake Tenayo, California.

The Merced (Cal.) Express says: Lake Tenayo, at the head of the Merced river in Yosemite Valley, is very low and affords the best opportunity now for laying the foundation of a dam that may occur for many years. Some time in the future, when the increased population of Merced plains needs all the water supply of the Yosemite region for irrigation purposes, this lake will be utilized. Practical observers report that originally a deep lake of large area existed at that part of Yosemite. That the ancient barrier worn by the glaciers and floods of many prehistoric centuries can be replaced at less than the cost of the construction of a lowland reservoir of a small fraction of Tenayo's restored capacity. Whoever gets a grip on the water resources of a region dependent on irrigation for fertility, has almost feudal power and an assurance of immense wealth. Lake Tenayo, eventually, is sure to attract the attention of capitalists.

MINING ACCIDENT.

A Man Named Joseph Fleming Run Into the Sheaves.

The Tuscarora Times says: Joseph Fleming, employed as a miner in the Eira mine, met with a serious and perhaps fatal accident yesterday afternoon, as follows: Wishing to come to the surface, instead of climbing the ladder provided for that purpose, he placed his foot into a loop at the end of the hoist rope, grasping the cable above his head, giving the usual signal to the boy in charge of the whip horse to start ahead, and ere the animal had reached the end of his accustomed track Fleming's hands were run into the sheaves, breaking his hold and precipitating him to the landing 90 feet below. He was brought to the surface as quickly as possible and taken to his room, where it was found that one of his thighs was broken and the other one dislocated, besides which there were a number of severe bruises. The attending physician is of the opinion that unless internally injured the wounded man will pull through all right.

Cheap Real Estate.

A Chicago paper says: An old soaker stood at the corner of two busy streets in Chicago yesterday and looked at the stately buildings that stretched away into the smoky distance in four different directions. "I can remember," he said, "when this corner lot was offered to me for a 10-gallon keg of whisky." "Why didn't you take it?" inquired a by-stander. "It wasn't worth it. We had mighty good whisky in them times," said the old soaker, as a wistful look came into his eyes and he wiped his mouth softly with the back of his hand.

Why He Wanted It.

John D. Washburn of Worcester, Mass., who was nominated to the Swiss mission by President Harrison, is not of the manufacturing firm of Washburn & Moen, as was first announced. He is a rich man about 55 years of age who despises trade, but has a fondness for insurance investments. He is one of the trustees of the Clark University at Worcester, and Senator Hoar frankly says that the main object of his acceptance of the Swiss mission is to study law educational methods of Switzerland.

The Deadly Cigarette.

It ought not to be necessary every day to print evidence of the bad effect of cigarette smoking on growing youths, but the evidence from 200 doctors before the Michigan Legislature is worth heeding, and they cited cases of boys being dwarfed, made insane, killed or rendered incapable of speech, and the professors of Michigan University also testified at length of the effect on the students who were made stupid by cigarettes.
